CEO MESSAGE

If you have been around Gano Excel for any period of time, you have likely heard about following your “why.” We are all motivated by a central “why” that is rooted deep in the center of our minds. There, below layers of daily decisions, behaviors and habits lies a core of emotion and motivation. This inner region of our mind is too fundamental for the formation of words to express itself. It speaks in desires. It pushes us forward to act and achieve what we truly want. It is deeper than what we do. It is even deeper than how we go about doing it. We call it the “why.” It is why we do what we do. It is why we choose how to do it. It’s why we may feel frustration, joy or sorrow throughout the day. When something tickles our “why,” we feel happy. It is the source of our goals and our dreams.

Mr. Leow has a “why” that desires to spread health and wealth around the world. He discovered the power of Ganoderma lucidum as a way to do that. He founded Gano Excel to be the “how” for his “why.” The company has become strong and robust, because people all around the world resonate with the desire to help others. Some are motivated to spread health; others have a fire in their hearts to spread wealth. Being your own boss with Gano Excel may fulfill your “why” for reducing stress, spending more time with family, developing yourself as a leader, or seeing more of the world!

Your big dream is rooted in your “why.” If you haven’t already, it is important to understand what your “why” is all about. What makes your big dream important to you? Why is it that you will do whatever it takes to achieve it? When your “why” is clear, every decision you make starts to make more sense. You will understand your actions and reactions, and you can create better strategies for dealing with life, work, money and everything else.

I am looking forward to seeing you all at IGNITE on October 26, when we will welcome Mr. Leow Soon Seng to the USA. The growth in the USA is amazing and I cannot wait to hear more of your stories. It will be an inspiring moment that you will not want to miss!

Sincerely,

Mr. Ooi Chin Aik,
Chief Executive Officer, Gano Excel | North America

MR. LEOW'S BIG DREAM COMES TO LIFE THROUGH GANO EXCEL

"I love them," she said. A young Leow Soon Seng had spent years cultivating the perfect orchids to give to his mother. He finally gave her his finest as a gift. He knew that orchids were her favorite. In this moment, he realized that it was sharing happiness with others that motivated him. It brought him the greatest joy knowing that something as simple as a flower could put a smile in his mother's heart. It was just the beginning of a "why" that would someday touch the hearts of millions.

In 1980, Mr. Leow Soon Seng learned about the legendary red mushroom, Ganoderma lucidum. He was amazed at the health benefits that the mushroom offered the body. Balance, energy, strength. He thought of the goodness that he could share through Ganoderma. It touched the same piece of his heart that perfected his mother's favorite flower. Perhaps this was another way to spread happiness to others. However, this time it would not be as easy. He learned that because Ganoderma lucidum was so rare, it came at a high price. Using today's money, one bottle of Ganoderma could be as high as $200. Sharing it with those he loved would be incredibly expensive. Instead, Mr. Leow decided he would learn how to cultivate it himself.

Motivated by his "why," Mr. Leow researched Ganoderma for eight years, comparing the hundreds of varieties of the mushroom, and testing different cultivation methods. He was committed to perfecting it in the same way he perfected the orchids. He exercised patience, diligence and steadfastness. He kept his passion for using this mushroom to spread health and happiness to others at the forefront of his mind. Finally, he reached a product that he was happy with.

It was time to take the next step, so Mr. Leow looked into the power of network marketing. Mr. Leow thought the business model was excellent for sharing the health of Ganoderma, and also promoting wealth in people's lives at the same time. The "why," that was firmly planted in his heart grew as he formed a vision for spreading both health and wealth to every household around the world. From that vision, Gano Excel was born.

At that time, Gano Excel was producing two capsule products: Ganoderma and Excellium. It was clear that the health and wealth of Ganoderma was attractive. For the first two years, sales increased by 50% every month. It was a lucrative business and Gano Excel was doing very well. However, Mr. Leow had not forgotten his "why." His vision went beyond sharing locally. He truly wanted to help families all around the world. When he considered introducing his products to people in the Western world, he wasn't sure the capsules would be as popular as they were at home. So, he began to think about a new way to introduce Ganoderma.

It was by accident that one day, in his laboratory, some Ganoderma had fallen onto the table. It was valuable, and although Mr. Leow could not use it in his work, he did not want it to go to waste. He tasted the Ganoderma and realized that its flavor was similar to the coffee he was drinking. He suddenly had the brilliant idea to mix his Ganoderma powder and coffee together. He knew immediately he had found the way in which he would introduce Ganoderma to the West, and the rest of the world.

In 1997, Gano Excel introduced GanoCafé – the world's first Ganoderma-enriched coffee. The coffee would be introduced to more than 65 countries around the world, including the USA in 2002. Thanks to Mr. Leow's dedication to following his "why," millions have found health and wealth through Ganoderma lucidum. He has truly found a way to make the whole world smile. He remembers it all started with the love he had for sharing a piece of happiness with another.

SOCIALIZE: PROSPECT WITH PURPOSE

Socializing is a two-way street. Have you ever had a really good conversation with someone only to realize later that you did all of the talking? In retrospect, it was more of a monologue than a dialogue. A great conversation is one that engages the other person and persuades them to share about themselves. Confidence in yourself can only get you so far, it is genuine interest in others that will win them over.

So what do you talk about with the other person? Do you bring up a laundry list of interests, hobbies, and hot topics in the hopes that one magically sticks? It is important to think back to your “why” for a moment. Your “why” is what drives you, and it is deeper than all of the “what” that floats on the surface of who you are. Sure you may love ice cream, soccer and have a drawer full of Hawaiian shirts, but do any of these things really drive your decision making? What you want out of your prospect is a commitment, a decision, so you need to know what influences them when making such a decision.

To draw out what goes through a person’s mind when making a commitment, talk about some common motivators – the prospect’s relationships with time, stress, money, family, health and community. You may have already noticed your prospect make small decisions that reveal something about his or her why. Did she make a comment about how she never has enough time in her day? Does he skip to the value menu wherever he eats? Continue to pull back the curtain on what motivates these people the most. Ask, if you had an extra 2 hours a day, what would you do with it? Perhaps your prospect would exercise more. Perhaps she would sleep. Perhaps she would finally connect with a friend she’s been neglecting.

Many prospects may not be aware of their own “why” until you help them discover what is motivating them to make the decisions they do. Your prospect may respond saying, “I didn’t realize I was so stressed! Now I can see how everything I did today was to try and manage the chaos that was going on in my head.” It can lead your prospect to make better choices... healthier ones! For instance, a friend may be puzzled by the question, “if you could do one thing differently that would improve your health, what would it be?” However, once you introduce the simple solution of a healthier cup of coffee, they may realize how uncomplicated and inexpensive a healthy lifestyle can be. Once you find your prospect’s why, you can truly help him begin to live the life he wants for himself!

SCHOKOLADE PUPPY CHOW

Looking for a snackable treat to share with friends at your next party? Check out this spin on traditional puppy chow. It's made with Chex cereal, coated in delicious peanut butter and chocolate and dusted with a mix of GanoCafé Schokolade and powdered sugar!

Ingredients:

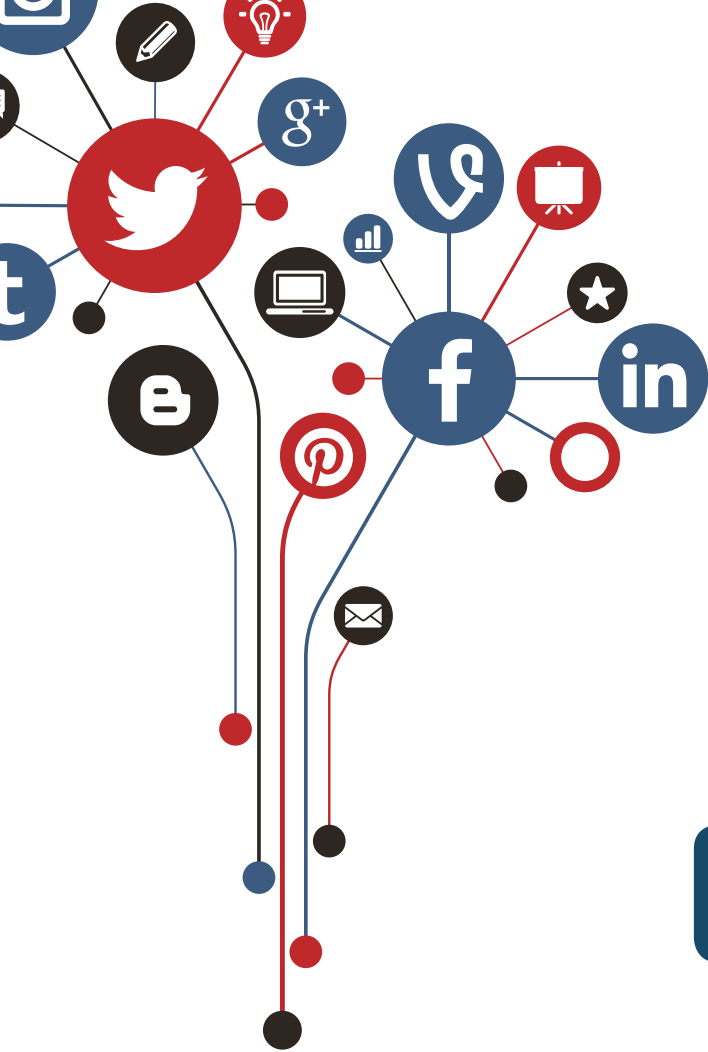

- 1 cup semisweet or dark chocolate chips
- 1 cup creamy peanut butter
- 6 cups Rice Chex Cereal
- 1 cup powdered sugar
- ¼ cup Schokolade mix

Directions:

1. In a medium bowl, mix together the powdered sugar and Schokolade. Set aside.
2. In a medium saucepan, melt peanut butter and chocolate together over low heat until mixture is smooth.
3. Add 3 cups of cereal squares to a large bowl. Pour 1 cup of the chocolate/peanut butter mixture over the cereal. Add 3 more cups of cereal to the bowl and then pour the rest of the chocolate/peanut butter mixture on top.
4. Stir until the cereal squares are evenly coated. If there is excess chocolate/peanut butter at the bottom of the bowl, add more cereal 1/4 cup at a time until the excess is spread evenly over the cereal. Do not add too much cereal!
5. Cool the mixture slightly in the refrigerator for 5-10 minutes. Don't let it to harden completely. Once your mixture is at or slightly below room temperature, add 1 cup of the Schokolade mixture. Mix until combined.
6. Let cool for about 15 minutes. Add more of the Schokolade powder 1/4 cup at a time until your cereal is coated to your satisfaction.
7. Let it sit at room temperature to harden before serving. Store in an airtight container at room temperature.

NUTRITIONAL FACT:

Peanuts have a high amount of a fat called oleic acid. It's a healthy type of monounsaturated fat that is also found in olive oil! Peanuts don't have any saturated fat. Instead, the healthy fats like oleic acid can actually help managing a healthy weight.

LEADERSHIP SPOTLIGHT ERICA REYNA

PREMIER DIAMOND

Erica Reyna has a smile that shows how much she loves her new lifestyle thanks to Gano Excel. She leads a massive team that spans more than four states and is still growing! She remembers many years ago she waved working for someone else's dream goodbye for good, and now she works for herself. What she loves most about being her own boss is the quality time she gets to spend on her family and friends. She loves that her business happens on her own schedule, and does not leave her tied to a shift or a desk. "It makes me happy that I get to spend the most hours of my day with those I love instead of away at a job," says Erica. Her days have completely transformed into a new way of life. She loves that Gano Excel products add to her daily health, which has been revitalized as a product of the product. But it all comes down to the freedom she now has. Freedom with her time, and financial freedom that is invaluable to her.

Also invaluable to her is the opportunity she has to be involved in the lives of her children. She introduces them to the concepts of business and economics while she conducts her work from home. "I am educating my children by example," she explains. She enjoys taking them to school and attending activities and tournaments. Her children notice that she is available for them and know that it is because of her network marketing career. "I am working to inspire them to be better people every day," she says.

She is confident in Gano Excel, because of the leadership of Mr. Leow Soon Seng. He has led the company since the very beginning. With all of the years behind the company, Gano Excel gives her a sense of stability that other companies cannot offer. She also appreciates the strength of the high quality products and the support of the corporate team. It provides her with reassurance that allows her to SHARE with confidence and joy. This positivity carries over into her leadership. She is an inspiration to her team and the feelings of appreciation are mutual. "I love my team. They are very good students who are willing to learn and have put 100% toward moving forward with their goals," says Erica. She is grateful for her teams in Bakersfield, Sacramento, Oxnard, The San Fernando Valley, Kansas, Arizona and Texas. She praises her team's integrity, faith and focus. She is happy to see her Affiliates advancing in rank and expects to see some reach Diamond very soon.

Erica compares the training she does with her team to building a house. Right now she is working on building a strong foundation, upon which she will build wealth to last her for years to come. She says it must be strong and able to weather obstacles. She is proud to have found a team that is committed to acting on their "why." "The most common 'why' I hear about is finding financial freedom," she says. "I am always so happy to SHARE how Gano Excel's opportunity can meet their needs." It is important for her Affiliates to identify their own goals, but Erica proudly supports them, motivates them and helps them reach new levels of personal development and success. She loves seeing an Affiliate's eyes open up to the belief that she can do it. "They can reach their goals, and with some motivation and support they can reach them even faster, and go even farther than they thought they could."

Erica is very excited to hear from her inspiration, Mr. Leow Soon Seng, at the IGNITE event this October. She plans to bring her massive team so that each one can be inspired as she has been by his impressive leadership. She sees it as a priceless opportunity for her team to hear from the founder of the company. "It is one thing for me to introduce the company to someone, and it is another for him to come hear from the founder and president," she says. She looks forward to hearing Mr. Leow share his knowledge about Ganoderma lucidum, the company and the vision for the future. The upcoming trip to Malaysia, along with hearing from Mr. Leow here in the USA, are opportunities for new Affiliates to grasp the reality of Gano Excel. "The opportunity may seem like a dream, but what makes it better is that it is not simply a dream — it is real."

MARCO MILLAN

GLENDORA, CA

Marco Millan is keeping it real with Gano Excel. He started his business in 2013 and has reached the rank of Gold. He was attracted to the dream of seeing the well-being of an entire community elevated thanks to sharing health and wealth with one another. He saw the immense value in the Ganoderma-enriched products of Gano Excel. They provide a way to improve well-being all around, from physical health to financial health. The best part was, they are made to be shared. Not only would he benefit from being a product of the product, but his friends and family would too. It was a great idea. However, it was after seeing the results in his own health that he saw this was not just an idea, it was a real opportunity. He decided to enroll and to this day he says it was absolutely the right decision.

Since enrolling, his quality of life has improved just as he envisioned. He attributes this to having a solid company led by Mr. Leow Soon Seng. “This company fulfills what it promises,” says Marco. “It’s the real deal.” Now, Marco smiles more. He goes about his day as a professional, from his suit to his manner of speaking. He has adopted a new way of relating to others from a variety of backgrounds. “Some already have a high quality of life, and others are struggling with finances,” says Marco. “I have the opportunity to share about Gano Excel with both.” He sees this not as an opportunity for the rich or for the poor, but an opportunity for everyone. “That is our mission: to spread health and wealth to every household,” he says.

Marco is proud to share about Gano Excel because of its genuine product, ethical principles and powerful tools available for him and his team to use to support each other. “It’s important for my team to know they are not alone, we have an excellent company and a strong communication network to help them,” Marco says. He says that building trust can be a challenge at first, but soon his Affiliates realize the opportunity and company are genuine.

Marco credits his parents and his business leader with teaching him many of the qualities that he is proud to see developing in his own life. His father taught him the values of honesty and loyalty. His mother taught him to do things with love and attention to detail. These values were passed down from generation to generation in his family. He also credits Ana Barona with showing him the value of patience, tenacity and consistency. He loves the opportunity to pass these lessons on to his own team as he duplicates his business and enriches the lives of people in ways that touch their hearts.

He is looking forward to reaching Platinum, and attending the upcoming regional events. His ultimate goal is to make more people aware of the real opportunity with Gano Excel and empower them to improve their lives. He believes that Gano Excel could someday be seen not just in households, but everywhere. He is thankful to Gano Excel and Mr. Leow for enriching his life. It has opened his eyes and given him and his loved ones a transformed life. “It is too great of a mission to keep it hidden away as a family secret. It should be shared with the whole world.”

LIVING UP TO OUR FULL POTENTIAL

We are so incredibly proud of each of these individuals who are making a difference through the simple, but powerful, act of sharing. We are happy to share in the excitement of their success! Watching each person grow, achieve and discover a new definition of what is possible for them is a fulfilling experience. We love to watch as an Affiliate's belief in a dream becomes a dream come true.

Join us in offering our sincere congratulations to the following Affiliates who have made it a priority to SHARE. From everyone at Gano Excel, congratulations!
