CEO MESSAGE

Spring will be here soon and flowers will begin to bloom everywhere you go. People will be out and about. Daylight will be plentiful. It is a great time to socialize and build a contact list that will last you for months! Right now, your motto could be “the more the merrier!”

It's time to turn on your charm and embrace the social side of network marketing. After all, building relationships takes a love of doing things together with other people. Plan on meeting someone new every day. Learn more names. Shake more hands. Smile more. Ask more questions. Take the time to turn a stranger into a friend. These small steps will begin to turn your cold list into a warmer one, and put new names on your prospect list you never considered before.

This turning point is also a great illustration of the fruit you will begin to see from the work you've done thus far in 2020. For two months, or even more, you've been setting the stage for growth this year. You've assessed what worked and what didn't last year. You've set new goals for yourself. You've made a plan and began to put it into action. No hard work is without profit, as the proverb says.

If you find yourself entering this month thinking “where has the time gone?” do not be discouraged. It's not too late to start. Begin planting seeds now, and very soon, you too will see the fruit of your work. This is your Ganoderma lucidum business, built on the shared passion for health and wealth. Be inspired by our stories of success from everyday people just like you who decided it was time to change their life for the better. Now is the time for you, too.

We are touring the country this spring and I hope you will take advantage of the opportunity to join us. Come hear all about our new GanoPlus products and the new ways to earn money with Gano Excel. Then, come to our GO for Gold event happening June 20, 2020. It will be a great milestone for Gano Excel USA and I'd love to see you all attend.

Sincerely,

Mr. Ooi Chin Aik,
Chief Executive Officer, Gano Excel | North America

JULIA & KEVIN HARTZ: A SUCCESS BUILT TOGETHER

Entrepreneurs are often pictured as people who love independence so much, they have a hard time staying in long term relationships. However, as network marketers, Gano Excel independent Affiliates know how to balance the need for independence and the need for relationships. Relationships are very important to network marketing. So much so, that socializing is one of the five pillars of Gano Excel's business philosophy.

Kevin and Julia Hartz are two people who knew the importance of relationships in everyone's life. Not only did they form a business around the concept of bringing people together, but as a couple, their business brought them together as well!

When Julia and Kevin first met they worked in separate parts of California. Julia was a recent graduate of Pepperdine University and working in Hollywood for a television network's marketing office. She managed product placement — a concept that made it difficult to please everyone involved. Kevin was an entrepreneur in the Bay Area, and when he first met Julia he was working on building a money transfer service called Xoom. He also had invested in companies such as PayPal, Pinterest and Airbnb.

Julia decided she wanted to find a job in the Bay Area to be closer to Kevin. She found a job working for a new television network in San Francisco, but it would mean taking a pay-cut. Kevin encouraged her by saying that if she was going to take a pay cut it shouldn't be for someone else's business. It should be for hers. He invited her to partner with him in their own start-up. She said yes and their first business together was born.

The couple got engaged in April 2005, founded Eventbrite in 2006 and later that year were married. They started Eventbrite as a way of bringing people together using technology. They saw that technology had developed a reputation for isolating people by drawing them indoors to spend time in front of a computer screen. So they decided to turn that notion on its head, and use technology to help bring people together in the real world. Kevin said in an interview, "It's what is important to us when we think about what we want for our children and what we want for society."

A friend gave them the advice of dividing and conquering so that they would never work on the same thing at the same time. Instead they looked at what each other did best, and allowed each other to use their strengths.

When the company began to attract investors and grow, Julia realized that this wasn't just a dream anymore. She needed to figure out what her purpose was, and so she decided to focus on people. She wanted to support Kevin's work in building a great business by also making it a great company of people. Her work paid off. Eventbrite has won the Bay Area's Best Places to Work award for 11 consecutive years.

The two worked together, Julia as President and Kevin as CEO, until 2016. That's when Kevin stepped down to return to his entrepreneurial roots, and Julia was invited by the board of directors to step into the CEO role. Julia successfully took Eventbrite public in 2018, becoming one of the few female tech entrepreneurs to do so! Eventbrite has grown to a team of 700 people who occupy eight offices around the world.

Julia calls her husband her motivator and her mentor. She said in an interview with the New York Times, "If you have that person who just consistently says, 'You can do anything,' you start to believe it."

Imagine what a huge difference it can make in your business to have someone who never stops believing in you. Or perhaps you don't have to imagine it. If you already have a Diamond leader, upline or friend who encourages you every step of the way, take the time to let him or her know how much it means to you. It is wonderful to be in business for yourself, with others who are doing the same.

WAYS TO EARN: RETAIL SALES

Your simplest and fastest way to earn money with Gano Excel is retail sales. You have undoubtedly engaged in retail sales as a customer – maybe on a weekly or even daily basis! Now that you have your very own business, it is time for you to experience making money using retail sales. Simply purchase products from Gano Excel at an exclusive wholesale price. Then, you can sell these products at a retail price and keep 100% of the profit you earn!

For example, you can purchase a box of GanoCafé Classic for the wholesale price of $19. When you sell it for the retail price of $27, you keep $8 profit. You can make instant profits by retailing all of our signature GanoCafé and GanoDaily products – all enriched with our proprietary blend of Ganoderma lucidum.

SOCIALIZE: HOW TO REMEMBER MORE NAMES!

Ever wish you could remember someone's name? Imagine the following scenarios and think about how this important skill can benefit your business. You're standing outside your ex-favorite coffee shop when that man walks up who orders the mocha with no whip every morning. You've seen him a hundred times and want to tell him about the health benefits of your much more affordable and Ganoderma-enriched GanoCafé Mocha. What was his name? Was it John, or Ron? Later, you attend a Your Great Opportunity event where your personal enrollee brings a prospect who immediately congratulates you on your presentation from last month. What was her name? Lisa, Elisa or Annalisa?

Remembering names is a hugely beneficial skill in network marketing. Having someone remember you does wonders at getting new contacts to let down their guard during your conversation. You may meet thousands of people as a professional network marketer, so it's no surprise that all those names may be difficult to remember. Practice these four tips! They are recommended by experts at improving your brain's connectivity while matching a face with a name.

1. Focus on the person while you talk to them. It may not be that you can't remember a name so much as you weren't truly listening. Knowing that you want to remember someone will help put aside other thoughts that may be on your mind. Clear your mind and focus on your prospect!

- 2. Repeat the person's name in your conversation or shortly afterward. Keep it simple. Greeting the person with their name such as "Pleased to meet you, John," helps your mind to make the connection. You can also repeat the person's name to yourself after parting ways.
- 3. Connect the person's name with something about him or her. When looking at your prospect, there may be a physical feature that stands out that you can use as a mental note, such as being tall, having curly hair or a distinct chin. You may also connect the name with a fact you learn about the person.
- 4. Review names at the end of the day. It helps if you write them down, especially if you have a visual memory. However, simply asking yourself "who did I meet today?" will help take the name from your short-term memory and add it to your long-term memory.

It all begins with knowing that you want to remember the names of people. If you care about remembering someone's name, you are already halfway there! Now, you're ready to get out there and meet someone new!

FERRERO ROCHER HAZELNUT SHAKE

What could be more delicious than the chocolate and hazelnut flavors of Ferrero Rocher in a milkshake?

Not only does this shake taste amazing, it's nutritious! Thanks to the incredible health benefits of Ganoderma lucidum, you can feel great about enjoying every last drop of this milkshake. Simply combine the ingredients in a blender, blend and finish with tasty toppings.

Ingredients:

- 1 sachet GanoCafé Hazelnut
- 1 cup hot water
- 2 cups vanilla ice cream
- 1 Tbsp Nutella or other hazelnut spread
- 3 Ferrero Rocher candies (optional)

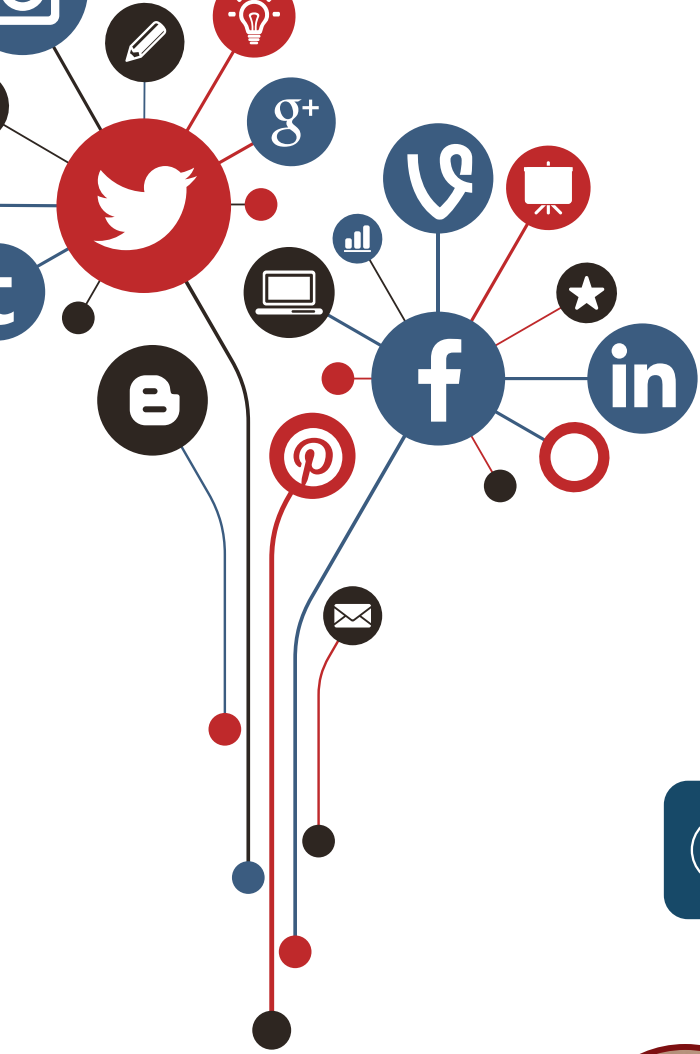

Directions:

1. Prepare the GanoCafé Hazelnut by mixing sachet contents with hot water in a cup or mug. Let it cool for a few minutes.
2. Pour GanoCafé Hazelnut in a blender and add ice cream, nutella and candies, if using.
3. Blend for 30 seconds or until smooth.
4. Pour into a tall glass and top with chocolate syrup and additional Ferrero Rocher candy.

NUTRITIONAL FACT:

A 2015 study presented at the 12th European Nutrition Conference suggested that hazelnuts were a great source of antioxidants. The 8-week study showed that eating hazelnuts significantly decreased oxidative stress! Another great source of antioxidants is Ganoderma lucidum, with more than 150 antioxidants identified.

LEADERSHIP SPOTLIGHT MARIVEL SANTOYO

EXECUTIVE DIAMOND

Marivel Santoyo looks back with gratitude on all of the changes to her life that being an Affiliate with Gano Excel has brought her. Never could she have imagined herself emerging from who she once was and becoming the powerful leader she is today. She enjoys a career that she loves, is able to accomplish everything she wants, and, most of all, she has the opportunity to fight for her dreams.

She has Olga Loya to thank for sharing the Gano Excel opportunity with her. At that time she was working full-time in a factory and making a decent living. She knew nothing about network marketing. Like many Affiliates, she started because of the great results she and her family saw in their health after using the Ganoderma-enriched products. However, she soon saw how easy it was to generate income by simply sharing a cup of coffee.

Marivel says her eyes were opened to a new way to work and live her life. She was not happy at her job. She came home exhausted and unsatisfied. She wanted more out of life, but had no time and no energy. This negative pattern wore on her and she began to think her life was escaping from her without the joy and happiness she dreamed about. The Gano Excel opportunity brought freedom. It was freedom to work for herself, on her schedule and toward her own goals. Not only did she make money, she developed as a person. She learned new things, met new people, and developed new skills. In turn, she has learned to care about others and make a difference in others' lives. Now, her career makes her happier than she has ever been!

She has learned to live her life as an example to others of what is possible. She balances the needs of her home-based business with the responsibilities of being a wife and mother of two school-aged children. She manages her time so that she is completely present and engaged with her children when they need her, and takes advantage of when they are away to make conference calls, presentations or meet with prospects. She loves to share with other women about the opportunity to “do it all” with proper time management. She also leads by example in her business, passing on what does or doesn't work to her team. By doing the business herself, she motivates her team to do the same. When something works for her, her team is excited to implement it into their own businesses as well.

Marivel is inspired by her father and her mentor, Olga Loya, who is now a Royal Diamond with Gano Excel. A lesson she has learned from both of their examples is to fight for your dreams. She says that Olga is an amazing example of perseverance and leadership. Her father worked and sacrificed for many years because of the dreams he had for his children. Marivel's time with Gano Excel has blossomed this spirit in her. Where she had been ashamed, she is now confident. Where she had been afraid, she is now determined. She says of the leader that she aspires to be: “A leader for me is a person who speaks truthfully with respect and with love; she recognizes each person, faces her leadership, and overcomes her challenges. She is a positive person who drives you to reach your goals.” She is convinced that anyone who wakes up the desire to change and stands firm in the face of challenges and distractions, will see the transformational success that they are working toward.

Marivel asks to express her love and gratitude to the great mission of Mr. Leow Song Seng which has made this transformation possible in her. She also thanks the corporate USA team, her teacher Olga Loya, all her leaders and customers, and her family.

REYNA FLORES

FONTANA, CA

Reyna Flores was introduced to Gano Excel nine years ago, when she first tasted a cup of GanoCafé coffee and fell in love with the product. Two years ago, she made the decision to enroll as an Affiliate with Gano Excel. She says the decision has made a huge difference in her capability to serve her family and serve her community as well. It has also given her the confidence she needed to achieve her dreams.

She is amazed that a cup of coffee can transform someone's life so greatly. It started with the health benefits of Ganoderma lucidum. She noticed an improvement in her son's health that allowed him to be more active in school. The benefits she saw went on to include economic improvement, freedom with time, personal development, and the opportunity to serve.

Serving others is a very personal calling to Reyna. She saw when she began to share Gano Excel's amazing products that people would come back to thank her with hugs and handshakes. It was this great gratitude that meant even more to her than the money she earned. It was something great for her soul. Now that she works exclusively from home, she also has more time for her three children. She can take them to school and pick them up. She feels like she can really take care of her home while still earning a paycheck.

This new freedom has allowed Reyna to fulfill a dream of being more present for her family — one that she was not able to achieve in her previous work. Now that she has seen this dream come true, she has seen a change in her mentality. Things that she previously thought were not possible are now things that she sees as possible. Where she used to think "I cannot do that," now she thinks "I CAN." Dreams can be achieved with effort, dedication, consistency and love.

She thanks God for the change that she has seen in herself. She also thanks her mentors Ruben and Maggie Cardenas, Royal Diamonds with Gano Excel. "They have been there for me, excited about what I am able to do," says Reyna. She is inspired by their examples of leadership and service. She can tell that they give from their hearts and work hard to help people achieve their dreams. She wants to follow in their footsteps in helping others.

Reyna is excited for the upcoming 25th Anniversary celebration of Gano Excel in Malaysia this fall. She had the pleasure of traveling to Malaysia with Gano Excel in 2019, and plans to earn the trip again this year. Her goal is to impact even more lives in 2020 by simply sharing one cup of coffee at a time.

LIVING UP TO OUR FULL POTENTIAL

We are so incredibly proud of each of these individuals who are making a difference through the simple, but powerful, act of sharing. They have created a solid network that has allowed them to earn and advance in their businesses simply by sharing Gano Excel's products and opportunity. Now, we are happy to share in the excitement of their success! Watching each person grow, achieve and discover a new definition of what is possible for them is a fulfilling experience. We love to watch as an Affiliate's belief in a dream becomes a dream come true.

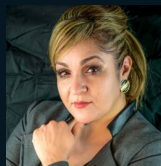

Join us is offering our sincere congratulations to the following Affiliates who have made it a priority to SHARE. From everyone at Gano Excel, congratulations!
