CEO MESSAGE

What wonderful blessings knowledge brings. There is a reason why parents will often pick up their lives and move to a new neighborhood, state, or even country where their children will get a better education. Access to knowledge can propel a person to achieve more, earn more and enjoy more in life.

Your journey to actualize your dreams of wealth, independence, dignity, and excellence begins with a fresh mindset. It's time to go back to school, as some would say, and learn new patterns and habits that will catapult you to the success of the leaders you'll find in this issue. And even beyond that, to greater heights than you can hardly imagine.

Refresh yourself with greater knowledge from three key sources: information, experience, and people. Perhaps the quickest and easiest source of knowledge is information, which you can get by reading a good book like The Magic of Thinking Big by Dr. David Schwartz. You can also research the many positive benefits of Ganoderma lucidum, dig into your Wealth Plan, or attend a GE presentation. But don't stop there. There is something to be said for the knowledge you can gain from experiences and people. Stay committed to your business. Over time, you will gain a new understanding of how to SHARE these amazing products and opportunity with others. Practice listening with your team, also. Both new and seasoned Affiliates will have something to teach you about connecting with your market.

We had an unforgettable time this summer with the Elite 88 in the Bahamas. Your leaders received in-depth training and exclusive time with Mr. Leow. And they joined other top-producing Affiliates from across the Americas. I hope to see YOU at our next leadership event! Stay active in your business, gain the knowledge that is available to you, and you will rise. We're also excited about our Chasing Stars promotion going on now through December 4th, And our GE Gala on December 3rd will be a great time to reconnect with your GE family and celebrate the year's achievements. See you there.

Sincerely,

Mr. Ooi Chin Aik,
Chief Executive Officer, Gano Excel | North America

DIAMOND TALK

Rebeca Sanchez - Executive Diamond

We've been through a lot these past years. What changed about the way you run your business?

I reaffirm my commitment to bringing health and happiness to all families in the world. "It's an ill wind that blows nobody any good," goes the saying. I'm learning more tech-related skills, getting introduced to new ones and applying them to my business. I also learned to face my fear of making videos and becoming more creative. That's why I enjoy business so much because I determine my success.

Why is the Gano Excel opportunity still the best opportunity out there?

It's the best opportunity out there since it gives you the chance to grow even modestly. I started with $50 and gradually increased my income according to my capabilities until I was able to purchase a large business package. It is amazing to be able to run a successful business. You can have all your desires, it just requires drive. Success is a result of mental toughness, tenacity, persistence, and a lot of heart.

People this year may have gotten a taste of what it could look like working from home – what do you think is the best part about that?

Woooo, it's a wonderful dream to earn a weekly check and spend your time as you please. I'm able to spend more time with family without feeling rushed, enjoy a satisfying breakfast without worrying about being late, and not have a boss watching your every move. This is something that I think many people should have. Thanks to Gano Excel, I am able to realize my dream of spending every moment with my family. This is a fantastic opportunity for everyone.

What do you do to keep away distractions?

I make a daily list of critical things and check it throughout the day. I have large boards to keep my notes clear, a work area, and I plan my day making sure I tackle my main task first. I avoid distractions like TV and radio. I have 2 key questions that I ask myself in order to be more efficient; Does what I do add or subtract to my goal? And I practice that every day.

Omaira Barreto - Diamond

How long have you been running your Gano Excel business now?

I've had the pleasure of being part of this wonderful company Gano Excel for about six years now. I got introduced when I was part of a larger team.

Tell me the story of when you decided to do your Gano Excel business full time.

For me it was the satisfaction to be able to help and support our fellow humans, regardless of the circumstance, like someone did for me. It was very motivational being able to offer that to others in need.

Why is the Gano Excel opportunity still the best opportunity out there?

We have a very strong support system from our company. I see us continuing to grow because we focus on three very important aspects: product, health and wellbeing.

People this year may have gotten a taste of what it could look like working from home – what do you think is the best part about that?

The best part was our company gave us the chance to start our business, develop it, and encourage and motivate others who lost their jobs. Gano Excel gives us several options, including the chance to work from home while still devoting quality time to our families.

You continue to SHARE and spread health and wealth to more and more people – what's the most exciting part about doing that?

There isn't a day that goes by that we don't talk about our company's opportunities, delicious products, and how one may live well and succeed by consuming our products. To me sharing that with others is the most exciting part.

Sergio Navarro - Diamond

How long have you been running your Gano Excel business now?

I have been with Gano Excel for five exciting years now.

How did you get started?

At my own business, I sold fruits and vegetables in markets when I first arrived in the United States, mostly in the Fresno, California area. And without stopping this activity, entered network marketing. And when the earnings I saw from this second activity were equal to the profits I was making from my fruit and vegetable business, that is when I decided to devote myself fully to network marketing. My current way of life is entirely supported by the earnings I receive from Gano Excel.

What has stayed the same about this amazing business despite everything that has happened?

There are many interpersonal relationships in the online market. And nothing has changed at all. They originate from a man's commercial nature. There have been several advancements in access, but the core remains. As a result, we need to find prospects, select them, and learn how to invite them to hear about the product and the business opportunity. We also need to know how to present what we have to offer them, as well as how to follow up with them appropriately and assist them, if necessary, in becoming their own guides in this industry.

People this year may have gotten a taste of what it could look like working from home – what do you think is the best part about that?

People who worked from home during the pandemic had the advantage of developing their own system for managing their time and resources. They learned to value themselves more, to adopt an entrepreneurial mindset, to look for alternative sources of income, to be judged on their creativity, and many of them chose to use network marketing as their best option.

ON THE UP & UP

Reyna Flores - Platinum

What was missing in your life before you discovered Gano Excel?

Prior to discovering Gano Excel, I was always struggling to find time to be with my family. I needed a career that was both flexible and exciting because I worked a lot and felt like I wasn't really getting anywhere. Gano makes it possible to reach my life goals.

Tell me about the moment you decided you wanted a Ganoderma business for yourself. What were you thinking?

As days went by I was getting frustrated not being able to reach my goals in life. Suddenly, I ran into 2 old friends at work who I hadn't seen in a long time. She looked at me and said, "Reyna, I like to see you but I don't know how you got here to this shop because I don't live in this area." He told me about a meeting that was crucial in turning my life around. I'm referring to my mentor, friend, and almost sibling Rubén Cárdenas and his wife Maggie Cárdenas. They started to open my eyes and I saw opportunities that I didn't think were possible before.

What are you most proud of achieving in the last year?

I feel very proud Gano Excel shares with us the opportunity to benefit from Ganoderma lucidum and share the wealth, health, and prosperity with many other countries. I also feel very proud I get to work with a team of role models who share on a daily basis their knowledge and humility with me in service of our project.

What will you do to keep this momentum going into the fall?

I will continue tirelessly to inform more people about the benefits of Ganoderma and also share the flexibility and freedom that Gano Excel-based business offers me. Working closely with my team to reach our goals is my key to success and what will keep our momentum going.

Carlos Lopez - Platinum

What is the best part of your Gano Excel business to you?

The best part is helping others start their own business and seeing their smile when they try our great products.

Tell me about the moment you decided you wanted a Ganoderma business for yourself. What were you thinking?

At first, I only saw a coffee business but when I learned about coffee infused with ganoderma I saw that it could be a great opportunity to help others and grow a business. Just seeing the potential was really enticing.

Why is your mentality so important? Describe the right mentality to have to succeed.

The mentality is very important, you can't give up even when it gets hard. In a business it's very important because you always need to stay positive to succeed. You are your source of motivation, you have to learn to keep yourself moving forward and share that with your team.

What are you most proud of achieving in the last year?

I am very proud of maintaining my fellow distributors active during the past year. Seeing them grow and move forward makes me feel proud and at the same time motivates me as well. Knowing that even through hard times we can still keep moving forward keeps me going.

What are some financial goals you have been able to accomplish (for example, saving up, paying off a debt, affording something special)?

Something that I was very happy to accomplish was to earn enough that I don't have to work multiple jobs anymore. This also allowed me to pay off my multiple cars in a short amount of time.

Gabriela Arreola - Gold

What was missing in your life before you discovered Gano Excel?

Before learning about Gano Excel, my life was very ordinary, and without a deeper view of the future. My family and I also needed health care and other necessities. Joining Gano Excel made it possible to transform our lives in terms of our family's health and well-being. In all honesty, Gano Excel was life changing.

Tell me about the moment you decided you wanted a Ganoderma business for yourself. What were you thinking?

I first didn't believe in the idea of multi-level marketing, I had my doubts. To me it seemed that only a small number would succeed. I didn't think I would have the chance since I wasn't good at talking with others. But attending the weekly meetings changed my perspective. I gradually began to see the opportunity. However, it was after I attended an event and heard from Mr. Leow Soon Seng and other company leaders that I truly decided to join the Gano Excel business.

How has your mentality helped during the challenges of the last year?

It helps me to be more organized and to use the tools I have on hand, such as working on social media networks, video conferences, and virtual presentations. It helps me to be aware that I need to be prepared for life's challenges to maintain my commitment to my life's projects.

What do you want your business to look like one year from now?

I want to have ten fully committed independent leaders that live off of their business and help me expand to other states. I also want to step away from my current job and devote myself fully to my business, Gano Excel.

LIVING UP TO OUR FULL POTENTIAL

Congratulations to all those who advanced in rank this month! It takes hard work to achieve such a substantial change. Their commitment is met with the support of great leaders, who journey with each one in pursuit of actualizing their dreams. It gives us great pleasure to see you strive and reach new ranks. Let's take a look at some of our newest achievers. Remember that you are all very valuable to us at Gano Excel.
